

Storytelling Through Space.

Using Your Location as Your Ideal Participatory Video Background

Energizer - Space-to-Story Video Sprint - Finding the Frame Together

Arrival into Shared Space

Please write one word or a few emojis that describe the space you are joining from today.

Awareness - What our space represents

"Individuals change their environments, and their behavior and experiences are changed by their environments."

- Environmental Psychology by Robert Gifford, Linda Steg, and Joseph P. Reser

Noticing & Seeing the Frame

1. Arrive - Pause and breathe - Ordinary World
2. Notice - Lights, objects, screen, family members - Awareness
3. Imagine - What would a viewer feel? - First Call
4. Adjust - Make one small choice - Choice
5. Connect - My space could tell a story about... - Meaning
6. Relate - I connect with this space, because - Shared Journey

"My space could help tell a story about..."

Bridging the Story

"A place is a story."
- Rebecca Solnit
